

Tree Template

When your template is printed, the vertical line in the center of your tree template should measure about 6". This measurement does not have to be exact, as long as it is close.